We will fully investigate any complaint and attempt to resolve it to the satisfaction of the client or to a standard that we hold would be reasonable, given the circumstances of the case.
- 7.2 The Client agrees to allow the Company access to inspect and, where appropriate, re-clean any disputed areas/items, before arranging for a third party to undertake any remedial action on the affected area/item. Should it be the case that the client refuses to adhere to this condition, thereby preventing us from fulfilling our statutory duty to consumers, the Company will not accept any liability whatsoever. Furthermore, if the matter requires urgent attention to prevent further damage occurring, the Company may require entry to the location within 24 hours to correct the problem.
- 7.3 In case of damage to items belonging to our clients; provided it has been established that the Company was the cause of said damage, we will undertake to pay for the repair of the item. If the item is beyond redemption, the Company will rectify the problem by way of crediting the customer with the item's present actual cash value.
- 7.4 While our operatives make every effort not to break items, inevitably accidents will happen; a like-for-like replacement will always be the Company's primary objective, but this cannot be guaranteed. For this specific reason, the Company requests that all irreplaceable items, be that in the context of either monetary value or for sentimental reasons, be removed from the areas in which our operatives will be working.
- 7.5 The company may place items of furniture back on a carpet before it has dried; to prevent the furniture from causing a stain, we will place the feet of said item on furniture pads. The Company will not be responsible for any damage caused as a result of the client placing furniture on a carpet which has not completely dried; equally, we will not accept liability if a client removes the furniture pads prematurely.
- 7.6 While the Company will endeavour to ensure that a carpet is well-fitted, prior to embarking on the cleaning process; however, it can be difficult to determine the standard of fitting, and problems are often hidden. Therefore, in the absence of any negligence on our part, the Company will not accept any liability whatsoever for shrinkage of incorrectly or poorly fitted carpets.
- 7.7 The Company is not responsible for any existing damage to Clients property, in the form of existing stains, burns and other damage; we therefore undertake our operation on the basis that while we will guarantee to attempt to remove every stain, notwithstanding the fact that the Company uses cutting-edge equipment and chemical agents at the top end of the industry-standard, we will not guarantee that this enterprise will be successful.
- 7.8 Any work which the Company undertakes is covered by our Public Liability Insurance policy.

SECTION 8 - HEALTH & SAFETY

- 8.1 The nature of the cleaning will leave the carpets damp on completion; drying times vary, with anything from 4-12 hours being the norm, although this can be extended depending on a number of factors, such as levels of ventilation, ambient temperature and carpet fibre etc.
- 8.2 During this period, it is likely that moisture will transfer on the bottom of shoes/slippers etc.; CUSTOMERS MUST BE AWARE THAT THERE IS AN INCREASED RISK OF SLIPPING WHILE THE CARPETS ARE DRYING OUT, PARTICULARLY WHEN MOVING FROM A DAMP CARPET TO A HARD SURFACE, SUCH AS LAMINATE FLOORING, TILES ETC. Customers should therefore take extra care both while we are in attendance, and during the drying period.
- 8.3 Under the terms of the Occupiers Liability Act 1957, the occupier has responsibility to take such care as in all the circumstances of the case is reasonable, to see that the visitor will be reasonably safe in using the premises for the purposes for which they are invited or permitted by the occupier to be there. Customers are strongly advised to ensure that the warnings we have provided are notified to any third-parties who may be at risk; the company accepts no liability whatsoever for any failure so to do.
